Overview of the Webinar:

The most important aspect of landing a job is having curated the perfect resume and a cover letter. It is very important that your resume and the cover letter represents you in the best possible way and makes that best impression because it's the only avenue to secure you a job interview.

Often times it is always the small things that can make a big difference. The closer to perfect your resumé and cover letters are, the higher your chances of making yourself that dream job. But what after you received the offer for the interview, and have no idea how to prepare? You have to be very careful with these aspects from landing an interview to doing very well on interviews, everything that matters for you to land that dream job.

Want to know how to not overlook and curate the best resume you could send to your dream job and do equally well during your interviews following best preparation practices?

Don't worry, this event has everything covered. Make the most of your next career opportunity attending this interactive session on Resume, Cover Letter, and Interviewing skills by Neha Agrawal (Founder of WiseUp Communications and an Alumnus of NTU Singapore).

Know all the nitty-gritty details on how to land an interview to do well at interviews and be successful at landing your dream job.
